

In co-operation with TRADUKI, the Ministry for Cultural Affairs of Liechtenstein offers one residential scholarship in Vaduz in fall 2013.

This call is open to writers from Southeast Europe.

By this Writer-in-Residence programme, the Ministry for Cultural Affairs of Liechtenstein aims to enrich the literature scene in Vaduz by hosting contemporary writers from Southeast Europe and presenting these new voices to the audience in Liechtenstein. At the same time, we would like to give writers from Southeast Europe an opportunity to learn the literature as well as cultural and social circumstances in Liechtenstein and establish contacts with publishers, critics and translators in the German speaking area.

Writers-in-residence programme in Liechtenstein is a cooperation between the Ministry of Cultural Affairs of Liechtenstein and the literary network TRADUKI.

The visiting writer uses the time of scholarship to work on her/his current project. During the stay in Vaduz, the writer in residence will be made familiar with the cultural life of Vaduz, presentations, readings and meetings with publishers, translators and fellow authors are planned as well.

The scholarship includes the accommodation in a furnished apartment in Vaduz for the duration of four weeks, reimbursement of travel costs, and a grant in the amount of 1200 Euros.

The period of time of the scholarship lasts from October 20th to November 19th, 2013. Writers from Southeast Europe are invited to apply.

The Application shall contain:

1. curriculum vitae (English or German)
2. full contact address including telephone and e-mail
3. a motivation letter (no more than 2 DIN A4 pages) specifying current literary interests and projects as well as expected benefits/outcomes of the residency
4. the list of the works published
5. a short list of plans for work in Vaduz

The applications will be considered by a jury, consisting of members of the TRADUKI board. The applications are to be sent by email to: geschaefsstelle@traduki.eu. Deadline for applications is August 31st, 2013.

